Notice of Altering and establishing the Grade of Streets.

NOTICE is hereby given in pursuance of Sec. 2 and 3, Article 7, of the Amended City Charter of Los Angeles City, of the intention of the Common Council to alter and establish the grade of the following streets:—From street, from 5d to 4th street; 4th street, from 4th to 5th street; 5th street, from 4th to 6th street; 6th street, from Hill street to Pearl street, so as to conform to the grade as surveyed by Wm. Moore. An application for the same was made and approved by the Common Council, August 13, 1890, and the same was duly published. The proposed establishment of grade, in accordance with the survey of Wm. Moore, is as follows:—

days from this date, September 5th, 1874.
This notice is given by order of the Common Council at its session of Sept. 3d, 1874.
M. KREMER,
Clerk of the Common Council of Los Angeles City. sep5-10ds

CALIFORNIA was admitted into the Union on the 9th of September 1850. Now, was the 24th instant the twenty-fifth anniversary of the admission of our State into the circle of States? To make it such we must count the day of admission one of the anniversaries. It will be difficult to do this for the reason that the anniversary of an event does not arrive until one year after the occurrence of the event itself. The newspapers generally speak of the 9th instant as the 25th anniversary of California's admission into the Union, but it seems to us to be only the 24th anniversary.

Clairvoyance and Artesian Wells.

Dr. FRANKLIN has shown us a letter from ABRAHAM JAMES, the gentleman under whose directions the great artesian well at Chicago was dug, in which he says he contemplates visiting Los Angeles county this Fall with a view of locating here. He will bring with him the most improved machinery for artesian well digging and a corps of experienced hands to work it. Mr. JAMES has been for a number of years engaged in well boring in the oil region of Pennsylvania, where he has been remarkably successful. It is proper to say that this gentleman is a believer in Spiritism and it is through his clairvoyant powers that he discovers subterranean streams of water and oil. He claims that it was through this power that he discovered the source which supplies the exhaustless flow of water at Chicago. Mr. JAMES also proposes to bring out and locate a colony as soon as he has found a satisfactory spot on which to settle. He believes artesian wells may be struck in any part of this valley and regards himself as the person able to strike the flowing stream in every case.

Boys and Pistols.

Yesterday at noon a boy sixteen years of age shot himself, or was shot by his brother. It matters not who fired the fatal shot. No criminal act was intended or committed, and the boy is dead. He was a member of the High School of this city and was, we are told, something over the average good boy of Los Angeles. This boy lost his life through the too common habit among boys of carrying deadly weapons. We do not know that this habit can be broken up. We do not know that school teachers have the right, or would exercise it if they had, of searching the pockets of their pupils, but it seems almost a necessity that some such rule be enforced. The hills west of town are not safe for pedestrians after school hours. Nearly every school-boy carries a pistol, and the power of these pistols range from the harmless six-bit action concern to the deadly Colt's six-shooter. A lady and gentleman walking along Bunker Hill Avenue a few evenings since were astonished by three pistol shots, and the whizzing of the balls over their heads. We are informed that this sort of thing is very common in that locality, and we would call the attention of the city authorities to the importance of an early discontinuance of the hoodlum custom.

Distinguished Arrivals.

Among the latest guests at the Pico House are WM. M. STEWART, one of the State of Nevada's United States Senators, and General BEALE, a wealthy resident of Southern California. General BEALE comes down from San Francisco to look after the proposed line of railroad which is shortly to be built between this city and the coast and no doubt on through to the Cerro Gordo mines. General BEALE is largely interested in land grants at Santa Monica and the proposition of the Los Angeles and Coast Railroad Company to build a road which shall touch the water at a point not calculated to enhance the value of the General's land, is what is just now attracting his attention. He may make it an object to that company to run their road through his land. The success or failure of this in the future, and will depend to a great extent upon the liberality of Messrs. BAKER and BEALE. The mission of STEWART is quite different. He comes as a friend and advocate of the Central Pacific Railroad Company. He has been the friend and supporter of this corporation since his election to the United States Senate. Senator STEWART of Nevada has never been known to oppose any scheme or proposition of the Central Pacific Railroad Company. In Washington he has been recognized as the pettifogger of that corporation, and no one supposes that he visits Los Angeles county for any other purpose than to advance the interests of that company. It may be that he will talk Panamint and Cerro Gordo mines, but we would advise the friends of the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad or others favoring railroad schemes not down in the programme of the Central or Southern Pacific managers, to listen to what he has to say, yet say nothing of themselves—he is no friend to any railroad scheme of which LELAND STANFORD is not President.

Messrs. McCune & Garnett, noted Grangers, have sold seven hundred and fifty tons of wheat to I. Friedlander.

Cæsarism in America.

From Washington we learn that the political ball is again to be set rolling in the interest of the present Administration, and that the South is again to be overrun by armed troops, carpet-baggers and scallawags. The edict has gone forth over the signature of the American CÆSAR. In 1860-5 the vexed question of slavery culminated in the breaking up of all harmony and fraternity among us as a people; the engendering of sectional hatreds; the initiation of deadly political strife; the withdrawal of several of the States from the Union, and the inauguration of civil war. The yawning sepulchres of five hundred thousand of our slaughtered fellow-men; the warning of the country from Maine to Louisiana with friendless, hopeless widows and orphans; the paralyzing of every branch of industry; the ruin of our trade and commerce; a debt of near three thousand millions of dollars; a broken Constitution, and a divided and demoralized people! That these were the legitimate results of our internecine struggle, truth and candor will not deny. We need not stop at this late day to inquire upon whose shoulders the great fault lies, but it may be profitable to ask ourselves if since that time we have done all in our power to retrieve our fortunes and to heal the wounds left bleeding at the final surrender on the banks of the Appomattox. One of the inseparable evils of war, and especially of civil war, is the demoralization of the people and the bringing to the surface the very worst elements of society. This remark is peculiarly applicable to our condition at the termination of this bloody war. At that time, with the exception, probably, of LINCOLN and SEWARD, we had scarcely a man who was not more or less imbued with Cæsarism—not a statesman of ability in whom the people placed confidence. Hence it is we see the high places of our government filled with second and third rate men, without a single element of statesmanship or true greatness. And the logical result is before us: a government without a national policy and without the confidence of the people, and consistent in only two things—the holding on to office and the squandering of the public revenues. With an ephemeral creation of blood and carnage at its head, whose highest ambition seems to be to eclipse every snob in the country in the elegance of his surroundings, the sumptuousness of his entertainments, the splendor of his equipages, and the dexterity with which he handles the ribbons, with cigar in mouth and four-in-hand—but little can be expected of the present government. But when shall the present government terminate? That is the question. We have all heard of the psalmist who played upon a harp of a thousand strings—the present government has but one. Upon this string it successfully played itself into power, and upon this string it has maintained itself in power down to the present hour, and it is now taking the same string for another and an indefinite lease of power. This string is a pretended fear of another uprising in the South, and the consequent necessity of our CÆSAR to meet the emergency. How preposterous! But will the people longer dance to this tune? For nine years, the people of the South, after yielding to the stern results of war, have patiently endeavored to accommodate themselves to the situation, and had the lamentable Lincoln lived, there is no question but that the South, long before this day, would have resumed her former position as a happy and prosperous people. But, unfortunately, the government fell into the hands of the scum brought to the surface by the memorable struggle. Without merit of their own, expedients had to be resorted to, to hoodwink the people and maintain themselves in power; hence the Southern people have from time to time as the interest of their cases required, been subjected to indignities which would have exasperated any people on earth. The negro, without experience or preparation for the great change, was at once raised to the political place of the white man in effect, and absolute in the relative position of the two races. In this the South quietly acquiesced, but the Government, fearing the influence of the old master over the Negro, sent swarms of its paid adherents into the South—at the head of whom was a pious CÆSAR by the name of HOWARD, who has recently been whitewashed at Washington for having robbed both whites and blacks—to counteract this danger. Not satisfied with this, our CÆSAR took it into his head that the Negro was abridged in his social rights, and forthwith we have Ku-Klux Bills, Civil Rights Bills, and nameless other bills, ostensibly for the crushing of the pretended secession proclivities in the South, but really to bolster up Cæsarism at Washington. And now as the election approaches, we have from remote districts in the South, telegraphic dispatches with the startling headings, "The Turbulent South," "Distribution of troops in the disaffected regions!" "Call for protection in various quarters!" etc. etc., followed by the official announcements from Washington, "That Attorney-General Williams before leaving Washington last evening designated to the Secretary of War, the localities in which troops are most needed to suppress outrages. This list with the circular issued a day or two ago, was enclosed to Gen. McDOWELL, commanding the Department of the South; with instructions to so distribute his forces as to protect the localities designated." This is followed by a startling letter from CÆSAR himself to the Secretary of War, which will be (according to his official organs) "accepted as a harbinger of joy and peace to hundreds of thousands of law abiding citizens of the South." How very benevolent our CÆSAR has become; but some may ask why this joyous letter was not written years ago, and not left as a last political dodge to help our CÆSAR into the Presidential chair for a third term. And what is the tenor of this joyous letter? Why, in substance, he is now, as heretofore, sending armed troops to aid his cohorts to control the election in the coming contest—nothing more nor less. But read what the Washington organ of CÆSAR has to say on the subject:

"It is the first step in the direction of a restoration of quiet and good order in that section, made necessary by the turbulence of the recently elected, who disgraced the Confederate arms during the war by the Port Pillow massacre, and by the murder and starvation of defenseless prisoners, and which, since the war, has kept alive the feeling of sectional hatred through its Ku-Klux Klan, White Leagues and so-called Tax Unions. Unfortunately for the immediate protection of the class who have lately become victims of the disorder in the South, the Administration is unable to proceed to their direct relief, because the Constitution invests the power to do so in the State authorities; but, so far as it can be done without violating existing laws, and Constitutional requirements, the strong arm of the General Government will be brought to bear in their behalf. If these Southern murderers mean what they say, they may rely upon the fact that they will be accommodated; but it is to be hoped that the moral effect of the President's letter will serve to restore peace and quiet."

For nine years the South has lain prostrate under the exactions and machinations of this CÆSAR, and today "the first step in the direction of quiet and good order in that section has been taken!" Can the people be hoodwinked by such transparent pretexts for the perpetration of an administration which has reflected so little credit upon us abroad and at home, has permitted a system of corruption and robbery to permeate every department until it stinks in the nostrils of every reflecting mind. If we do not mistake the signs of the times, the people will be fully roused on this subject, before the next Presidential election, when a tide of indignation will set in that will overwhelm these vandals—leaving nothing but their sad memories to remind us and coming generations that they ever marred or ruffled the tide of time.

The Literary Society.

The meeting of the Literary Society at Lawlor Institute this evening will be open to all interested. There being no society now in existence, all present will have an equal share in effecting an organization. Certainly no more favorable opportunity than this can be offered for establishing this much needed means of literary culture. There are none who cannot profit by the exercises of such a society, and the young, especially, can through its agency receive a culture not easily obtained in any other way. Many persons keep away because they are, as they say, past the age when such things prove of interest to them. If they would give up part of their time to such things, they would, by the encouragement of their presence, assist greatly in maintaining the interest until a living society would be assured. It would be greatly to be regretted if, after all the effort put forth in the present instance, nothing of worth should be accomplished. If every one interested in literary matters will simply think that a part of the responsibility depends on himself and attend the meeting this evening, such a result will not occur.

Accidental Shooting.

A Spaniard, whose name we are unable to learn, met with a very painful mishap yesterday on the San Fernando train. When about eight miles from the city, a coyote was seen near the track, and the Spaniard offered his pistol to conductor House to shoot it. In attempting to cock the pistol, Mr. House let the hammer slip and an explosion followed. The bullet from the pistol entered the left leg of the owner below the knee, ranging downward and breaking the small bone. Mr. House brought the wounded man back to the city and called in Dr. Stanway, and assumed the expense of the necessary medical treatment. No blame attaches to Mr. House, who is proverbially careful, and one of the most accommodating attaches of the railroad.

Dogs.

EDITOR HERALD: The vexed question, dogs: there are too many of them, and if there is no law by which those pests of day and night can be exterminated, then it is time that every person so annoyed should go killing and resolutely to the work of killing as many as he or she can, with stychnine and revolver, and in due time we may insure the safety and peace of our families.

A MOTHER.

The following predictions were made by Henry Clay in 1843: The agitation of the question of slavery in the free States will—First—Destroy all harmony; Second—Lead to division; Third—To poverty; Fourth—To war; Fifth—To the extermination of the black race; Sixth—To ultimate military despotism.

The name of Mr. H. Fleishman is mentioned as a probable nominee for the office of City Treasurer in the coming election.

Sam. Hellman has it; a joy forever, a thing of beauty in the shape of the latest improved parlor kaleidoscope. It makes an elegant and tasty ornament for any centre-table.

The steamer Senator arrived last evening with 60 passengers and 245 tons of freight. She will sail on her return to San Francisco on Saturday, in place of the Pacific.

Mr. R. S. Baker, one of the proprietors of the Santa Monica Railroad enterprise, returned to the city yesterday on the Senator, and is stopping at the Pico House.

Chanquil, the Indian arraigned for assault with intent to commit murder, was yesterday found guilty of assault by the jury, and sentenced to two weeks in the chain-gang.

We wish to direct the attention of our readers again to the great land sale to come off at Downey City on the 22nd inst. Lots suited in size and location to every taste will be disposed of at the most reasonable terms. A rare opportunity for investment is here offered which will doubtless never recur in that locality.

The Council has very sensibly concluded to order an enforcement of the dog-law, requiring the payment of a tax on every animal in the city. Now let the Marshal see that the law is faithfully carried out, and we shall have fewer worthless dogs in the city and fewer distressing accidents to report through them.

A gentleman who was crossing Main street yesterday "without his wits about him," was run upon by a passing horse and knocked down. The animal was driven by two ladies in a buggy, and they must have been remarkably careless to bring about such an accident. Fortunately, the gentleman sustained no serious injury.

The dramatic performance and ball to be given by the Turn Verein Germania has been postponed. The gas will be shut off throughout the city at 12 o'clock on Sunday night, the time appointed, and consequently the evening's enjoyment would be curtailed to half its proper length. The time fixed for the entertainment will be announced in due time.

The following is a list of the passengers per Ventura, which sailed from San Francisco for Wilmington, Sept. 9th: H. M. Johnson, M. Hawkins, Mrs. E. L. Tanev, Miss Sue Bowler, M. Russek, I. A. Davis, Wm D Bradford, E. C. Gage, Mrs. I. M. Campbell, Mrs. W. A. Wilson, Miss N. Huntley, Mr. Carter, Miss B. Cohn, Miss C. Lansbury, Mrs. D. Pinto and family, B. E. Torney and brother, Chas. Priest, Mrs. F. M. Hutchinson and two daughters, M. Adams and family, Mrs. Halsey, W. Green, F. B. Bond, D. B. Meyer, F. G. Petrel, A. Cohn, S. Corby, wife and sister, J. D. Toogood and wife, Mrs. Meek, Mrs. H. W. Russell and child, F. Slogerbeer, A. Moore, Chas. Wise, J. W. Westall, L. G. Yeager and wife, J. A. Macao, C. F. Perle, wife and children, Mrs. J. McIntyre, Mrs. M. A. Bell, Mrs. D. B. Haskell and children, Mrs. Roberts and children, P. Clifford, O. Stamer.

Fatal Accident.

A sad casualty occurred yesterday resulting in the death of a lad about sixteen years of age named Mark Carleton. It seems that during the noon recess, about half past 12 o'clock Mark and his brother Frank with some other companions went out on Temple street, a short distance from the high school building, for the purpose of trying a revolver which they had. The revolver was a five shooter carrying a small bullet not much larger than a good sized shot. They discharged several barrels and supposed them all emptied, when Mark took the pistol and began removing some of its parts to show his companions the spring in the lock, meanwhile holding the hammer back with his thumb. The weapon was held in his left hand with the muzzle pointing at his own breast and while in this posture, his thumb slipped from its hold and the fatal shot was discharged. The ball entered the heart of very near it and the unfortunate boy expired in about four minutes.

The remains were taken to the residence of the lad's father, on Spring street, near Fourth, where Coroner Richardson was summoned and elected the facts as given. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of the parents. Friends of the family are invited to attend. The classmates of the lad so late and deeply lamented will join the funeral procession as it passes the High School building. We trust that this terrible accident will prove an impressive warning to other youth of our city who may be inclined to handle fire arms. Boys, don't carry or handle a pistol; it is neither ornamental or useful, and the life of the owner or some of his companions may pay a dear price for the use of the toy.

Common Council Proceedings.

THURSDAY, Sept. 10th.

Council met at the usual time with President Sabich in the chair. Present: Dockweiler, Gerkens, Huber, Workman, Valdez, Sabich, Beaudry, Valdez and Chavis. Absent: Mascari and De Celis.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved with some amendments. The reading of minutes of special session of Sept. 5th was dispensed with.

The Marshal reported the collection of $1,700 on account of license-tax for the month. Placed on file.

The Committee on Janitor reported upon the account of Janitor for money expended, stating that they found it correct. The committee recommended a further appropriation of $100 for cleaning and repairing janitor.

Report of receiving and appropriation made by a unanimous vote.

The Committee on Police reported upon the investigation of charges brought against officer Frank Carpenter, exonerating him from all blame. Resolved and adopted.

The Finance Committee reported the rates of assessments on city property for the fiscal year ending April 30, 1875, as follows: Rate of assessment, one hundred cents on every one hundred dollars of property assessed. The allotments as reported were:

|--|-------|----------|
| River Fund..... | 2% | $ 1,125 |
| Current Expense Fund..... | 2% | 1,125 |
| Interest and Sinking Fund 1862-24..... | 2% | 1,125 |
| Interest and Sinking Fund 1862-24..... | 2% | 1,125 |
| Bonds 1870..... | 1% | 5,625 |
| School Interest Fund..... | 6 | 2,500 |
| School..... | 4,200 | |
| Cash Fund..... | 23 | 9,900 |
| | 100 | $45,000 |

As will be perceived, this is a reduction on last year's levy of 30 cents on every $100, which should meet the approval of the Council as well as all tax-payers. The amount raised by this levy is $45,000, which it is thought will be sufficient to meet the expenses of the city government for this fiscal year, and pay the entire indebtedness outstanding against the current expense fund. The report was submitted by P. Beaudry, H. Dockweiler and Wm. H. Workman, Finance Committee.

By permission, Mr. H. D. Barrows and Dr. W. T. Lucky addressed the Council on behalf of the Board of Education, representing that the allotment for the school fund was inadequate to pay the expenses of the city schools, especially if the compulsory education law be enforced.

Mr. Beaudry thought that the Committee from the School Board were too late with their request to change the assessment, nor virtually leveled.

Mr. Workman and Mr. Dockweiler both indorsed Mr. Beaudry's views. On motion the tax-levy as reported was adopted.

The committee appointed to investigate the petition of the trustees of the German School asking to be exempted from assessment for building Main street sewer, reported adversely to the petition. Report adopted.

The Council on Lands reported in favor of granting the petition for the lands of Dr. Rivas and G. R. Sangulnetti and adversely to the petition of J. A. Brown.

By permission, Judge Widney addressed the Council, offering explanations to the improvement of the lands of apparent difficulties in the way of granting the petition of J. A. Brown.

On motion, it was ordered that deeds issue to J. A. Brown, as well as Sangulnetti and Rivas, in accordance with petitions.

The committee were granted further time to report on the petition of J. Mullaly.

The Committee on Sewers recommended that a sewer be built from the intersection of Fort and Second streets to Main street; the same running through Second street to intersect with the Main street sewer; all in accordance with a petition of property owners presented some time since.

A debate followed upon the adoption of the report, and it was finally withdrawn by the Committee.

A resolution providing for the grading and improvement of Temple street with assessments against property-owners for the same was presented and passed.

Bids were received from E. Gay & Co. for the building of Main street sewer on the lot owned by Meyer, proposing to build Main street sewer according to specification for $175 per running foot. The bids were referred to the Committee on Sewers with instructions to accept the contract for building Main street sewer to Messrs. E. Gay & Co., provided they build the sewer according to the specifications of the City Surveyor, making excavations and furnishing materials. The bond to be filed by contractor was fixed at $8,000.

The bid of Messrs. Gay & Co. for building the extension of Main sewer was also received and contract awarded to them with bond fixed at $8,000.

A petition was received from R. M. Widney, President of the Episcopal Sixth Street Railroad asking for an extension of their franchise from the Pico House to the upper depot grounds. By permission Judge Widney addressed the Council in support of his petition urging its immediate passage. On motion, a Special Committee of three was appointed to consider the petition in question, and report on Friday. Messrs. Beaudry, Workman and Dockweiler were appointed such committee.

A petition from J. M. Baldwin on the part of himself, O. W. Childs, and John G. Downey, asking for a franchise for the Main Street Railroad, filed by contractor, was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

A petition for leave to do the grading in front of his premises was filed from H. Dockweiler. Leave granted.

Same request from C. C. Coroneal, A. Coroneal and John Farrel. Same action.

A petition was received from the Trustees of the German English School, stating that they were about to sell their present school property, on account of its being inadequate for their purposes; that they intend and wish to build a house which will be an ornament to the city, and asking for the donation of a lot on Temple street. Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Dockweiler called attention to the fact that a great many worthless dogs are running at large. The Marshal was instructed to enforce the license law.

The nuisance on Aliso street, near the fruit drying works, was ordered abated.

The parties having obstructions near the fire hydrants were ordered to remove them; also obstructions on sidewalks.

Adjourned.

Hebrew New-Year.

The Israelites will commence celebrating their New-Year at sundown (6 o'clock) this evening. This is the beginning of the seventh month, called "Tisri," the first and second days of which they commemorate as the festival of New-Years' Day. This day is called "a day of memorial," signifying that the people are called upon to bring to mind their actions during the past year, and pray to the Lord to pardon their sins. It is also designated as "a day of blowing of trumpets," after the ancient customs prevalent upon this anniversary. It is further known as a day of trial for men's souls. Wise men have proclaimed that this is the day on which the world was brought into existence; this is the day on which the Great God causes all His creatures to stand before Him.

The Sabbath between the New-Year and the Day of Atonement is called the Sabbath of Penitence, it being one of the ten days of repentance. The third day of this month is a general fast, called the Fast of Gadaliah, in memory of the murder of that pious man. Gadaliah was the son of Ahikam, whom Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, had made the Chief of the Israelites after the destruction of the first temple, after the destruction of the country. Gadaliah was on this day slain, with many of his friends, by Ishmael. The tenth day is called the Day of Atonement; it is the last of the ten days of penitence. On this day, as commanded in the law, a solemn feast is declared for the pardon of sin, to all those who are sincere and true in their repentance. The feast is held from the evening of the ninth to the evening of the tenth day. It is considered the most holy day in the year and so sacredly is it to be observed that the Israelites people are restricted from wearing their shoes or washing themselves during themselves as on other days. It will be remembered that during the period of the existence of the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, this day of atonement was a day of great solemnity; the whole nation was fasting, and the High Priest was allowed to enter the Temple was attended by priests who were engaged in their duties; the Levites were occupied in singing praises to the Almighty, and this was the only time in the year when the High Priest was allowed to enter the Holy of Holies.

To-morrow and the succeeding holy days will be observed strictly by our Jewish citizens. In the morning Reverend Mr. Edelman will preach in the Synagogue of the Holy Temple, Chapter 43, Verses 1, 5, 11 and 25.

"Thus said the Lord that created thee O Jacob, and He that formed thee O Israel. I fear not for thee, because thou art mine. Fear not for I am with thee, from the east will I bring thee, and from the west will I gather thee; for I am the Lord and besides me there is no savior. For I am I, even I, who blotted out your transgressions, until now, not for your righteousness, nor the righteousness of your forefathers but for my sake. And it is I who will pardon all your iniquities, and you shall be called a just man, and your sins I will not remember."

GROPING IN THE DARK.

Kind reader, did you ever have

Occasion in the night

To find your way through door ajar

Unaided by the light?

And when you thought the coast was clear,

Still feeling on before,

You run your face square on the edge

Of that half-open door?

Well, such is life. How much we grope

In moral darkness here.

Spurning the proffered Gospel light

To make our pathway clear,

And save us many bruises that

Are sure to leave a scar,

From running blindly 'gainst the doors

That sin has left ajar. W. H.

Tiburcio Vasquez says that the Teodoro Moreno who was sentenced to San Quentin for life for complicity in the Tres Pinos murder, is not the Teodoro Moreno who was with him at the time of that bloody massacre. He said there were two men of the same name, and the people will find out the difference after a while.
